DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT: DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT: On July 23, 2014, at approximately 7 pm Pembroke Pines Police Officers responded to the above location for a suspicious incident. Upon arrival the female juvenile reportee told officers that while she was playing a game with her brother in the street, two males drove by in a black SUV and stopped in front of her. The passenger leaned forward in his seat and asked the juvenile if she wanted any candy and then the passenger and driver began to laugh as they drove away. The juvenile ran into her house and advised her parents what had just occurred. The parents contacted the police to report the suspicious incident. The vehicle was reported to have no window tints.

The driver of the vehicle is described as a white male, late teens to early twenties, wearing a white shirt. The passenger is described as a black male, late teens to early twenties, wearing a black shirt, heavy set and clean shaven.

An independent witness who lives across the street from the juvenile observed the vehicle and also stated that the driver and passenger were laughing as they drove away.
