DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT:

Pembroke Pines Police and Fire Rescue responded to 1490 N. University Drive for a crash involving a vehicle and a pedestrian. Investigation revealed that the black Honda Accord driven by Tarshoney Jones was traveling north on University Drive. Bentley Johnson was attempting to cross University Drive on foot from the east to the west mid street and not at a crosswalk. As Mr. Johnson was stepping over the guardrail on the east side of University Drive, he became caught and as he tried to free himself, he fell into the northbound lane of University Drive and into the path of the black Honda where he was struck. Mr. Johnson was knocked unconscious and sustained several broken bones. He was transported to Memorial Regional Hospital by Fire Rescue and regained consciousness but remains in serious condition.
