New Accounting Statements

The objective of the new Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB) Statements No. 67 and 68 is to improve financial reporting by state and local governmental pension plans. Enhanced note disclosures and new schedules of supplementary information improve the usefulness of the financial reports.

GASB Statement 67 – Plan Accounting

This statement sets new financial reporting standards for pension plans, and includes Net Fiduciary Position (pension plan assets) and information about rates of return on pension plan investment. Users can also assess the relative success of the plan's investment strategy and the relative impact that investment earnings will have on the plan's ability to pay future benefits.

GASB Statement 68 – Governmental Entity Accounting

This statement is intended to make the pension portion of the financial statements more useful and encourage accountability. Net pension liability provides an indication of the extent to which the total pension liability is covered by the plan's assets.

In addition, the statement requires improved consistency and transparency of information across all governmental pension plan accounting:

- a consistent methodology for determination of the discount rate
- a single actuarial cost method for all calculations
- immediate recognition in pension expense of certain items
- standardized recognition periods for deferred outflows and inflows of resources

Accounting Disclosure Report

This report includes:

- Information required for your pension plan's GASB 67 Financial Reporting.
- Information required for your government entity's GASB 68 Accounting and Financial Reporting for Pensions.
- Required Supplemental 10 year history information. (GASB allows for the history to be built going forward. You do not have to go back and restate the past 10 years.)
- Additional information to help you budget for the upcoming year's pension expense.
- Information for your auditors that support the calculations in this report.

You can quickly find key topics from the Table of Contents by clicking on the topic to jump to that page in the report. The information in this report is displayed as it is in the sample disclosures in the statements. It also indicates where you need to add additional information from your records.

The portion of the present value allocated to a year is the service cost. Projected benefits are based on projected salary and projected service.

Measurement date

Assumptions

The Total Pension Liability was determined using the assumptions and methods described in Appendix 2.

Long-term rate of return

The expected long-term rate of return assumption for the plan's investments is 7.75%. This was determined using the method described in Appendix 3. The long-term rate of return assumption for the prior measurement period was 7.75%. The expected long term rate of return was selected by City

Discount Rate

The plan's fiduciary net position and benefit payments were projected to determine if the plan's fiduciary net position was greater than or equal to the expected benefit payments for each period; see Appendix 3. The assumptions used for the projection are described in Appendix 2.

The discount rate is a single rate that incorporates the long-term rate of return assumption and a municipal bond rate of 4.16%. This rate is from Barclays Municipal GO Long Term (17+ Y) Index, which includes 20-year, tax-exempt general obligation municipal bonds with an average rating of AA/Aa or higher securities.

The long-term rate of return assumption was applied to the projected benefit payments from 2014 to 2057. The municipal bond rate was applied to projected benefit payments from 2057 to 2106. Benefit payments after 2106 are projected to be $0.

Assumptions and Methods Prescribed by GASB used for Calculating the Discount Rate
With the exceptions below, all assumptions and methods are the same as those used in determining your plan's Net Pension Liability.
Participant group	Census as of 09/30/2014. No new participants join the group during the projection period.
Future Employee Contributions	Assume employee contributions continue at 7.25%.

Assumptions and Methods Selected by Actuary used for Calculating the Discount Rate

Interest rate	7.75%.
Funding Policy	Assume 100% of the estimated Actuarially Determined Contribution amount is contributed midway during each projection period.
Future Employer Contributions	Assumed employer contributions are equal to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employer Contribution is assumed to continue at 23.66% of payroll throughout the projection period. • Expenses are assumed to start at $48,000 and grow with the inflation assumption throughout the projection period.

Appendix 3 – Auditor Support

Long-Term Rate of Return

The expected long term rate of return was selected by City

Money-weighted Rate of Return

The money-weighted rate of return is calculated as a rate of return on pension plan investments incorporating the size and timing of cash flow. This return is calculated net of investment expenses.

The actual date and amount of each contribution, benefit payment and administrative expense payment was used in the calculation of the money-weighted rate of return. Please refer to the List of Transactions in the pension plan's fund statement for details.

The annual money-weighted rate of return on plan investments for the measurement period is 9.27%.

	Amount	Interest	Amount with Interest
Fiduciary Net Position, beginning	$141,210,749	$13,096,848	$154,307,597
Total benefit payments	(10,021,946)	(500,872)	(10,522,818)
Total contributions	16,710,014	277,920	16,987,934
Total administrative expenses	(2,299)	(138)	(2,438)
Fiduciary Net Position, ending			$160,770,276

Discount Rate

The plan's fiduciary net position and benefit payments were projected to determine the discount rate. Projected fiduciary net position includes expected employer contributions, expected contributions from current employees, projected benefit and administrative payments, and expected investment return. Projected benefit payments are based on plan provisions and participant data as of the measurement date, and include the effects of automatic cost-of-living adjustments, projected salary changes and projected service credits. Assumptions used for these projections are described in Appendix 2.

The long-term rate of return is used to calculate the actuarial present value of projected benefit payments for each future period when the projected fiduciary net position is greater than the projected expected benefit payments. Otherwise, a municipal bond rate is used. The discount rate is a single rate that reflects this valuation.

This projection is only used to establish the discount rate to use for GASB 67 and 68 purposes. It should not be used to determine future employer or employee funding contributions. Please contact us if you would like a customized estimate of future contributions.
