

The Development HUB: Search Public Records

The Development HUB can be used to search for building permits, code compliance cases, and business tax receipt information. It can be accessed at www.ppines.com/developmenthub

To search for building permits on the HUB, select either the Search tab on the header, or the Search Public Records button on the home page.

Change the dropdown under search to Permit and enter the parcel information to search. To ensure the most accurate results, it is best to search with the folio number/property ID as established by the Broward County Property Appraiser.
