The City of Pembroke Pines' Play Ball 2023

Pembroke Pines, FL (June 14, 2023) – The City of Pembroke Pines Recreation and Cultural Arts Department invites all residents to swing over to the Mayor's PlayBall Summer event, which will be held on Friday, July 14, 2023 from 10 a.m. to Noon at Flamingo Park, located at 1900 NW 122 Terrace.

Event Details

The Recreation and Cultural Arts Department hosts the Mayor's Play Ball Summer event each year in conjunction with the United States Conference of Mayors (USCM) and Major League Baseball to promote youth baseball and softball.

PlayBall 2023 is a great summer event for children who love baseball. There will be free cotton candy, popcorn, and hotdogs to enjoy along with baseball related activities and prizes. There will also be music, games and much more!

Children can compete in a friendly Pitch, Hit, Run Competition with separate age divisions, as well as divisions for Beginners and Advanced players. Boys and girls ages 7 to 14 will be given the option of using baseball or softball equipment.

Billy The Marlin, the mascot of the Miami Marlins, and the Mermaids will be there for a meet and greet. The first 100 kids at the event will receive a gift from the Miami Marlins.

For more information, please call 954-392-2116.
