Studio 18 Art Complex & The Frank Art Gallery FREE Admission During Bamm

Pembroke Pines, FL (August 30, 2023) – The City of Pembroke Pines is participating in this September’s Broward Attractions and Museums Month (Bamm), which encourages visitors to experience the diversity of cultural treasures throughout Broward County. Participating in Bamm, The Studio 18 Art Complex, and The Frank C. Ortis Art Gallery will be welcoming guests free of charge throughout September to experience the beautiful artwork done by our residents. Studio 18 Art Complex is located at 1101 Poinciana Dr. and The Frank is located at 601 City Center Way.

Event Details

In addition to free admission to the Studio 18 Art Complex and The Frank, visitors will also have an opportunity to enjoy free admission to seven additional galleries/museums and have the ability to purchase one admission and get a second admission for free at 13 other participating museums and attractions in Broward County.

Visitors will need to mention "BAMM" or inquire about the offer at the facility's ticket booth to purchase one regular price admission and get a second admission of equal or lesser value for free. As some restrictions may apply, visitors are encouraged to check each attraction's website or call for details. For more information about Broward Attractions and Museums Month (BAMM) in September 1-30, 2023, please visit www.facebook.com/BAMMsfl;
