Pines Night Out Meet Local Police, Fire, and More

Pembroke Pines, FL (September 24, 2024) – All ages are welcome to attend an informative and fun-filled evening at the annual Pines Night Out, a free event, on Friday, October 25, 2024, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Charles F. Dodge City Center, located at 601 City Center Way.

Event Details

Pines Night Out is designed to bring residents together to promote crime prevention, neighborhood unity and safety, and police and fire partnerships. This year's event will feature food, music, bounce houses, costume contests, health screenings, and displays from the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT), Pooches in Pines and the Crime Scene Unit. There will also be K-9 demonstrations, the chance to see up-close the armored Bear Cat, Dive Boat and Motor Units, as well as Fire Trucks and Fire Department demonstrations.

National Crime Prevention Month

Pines Night Out is scheduled in October to coincide with National Crime Prevention Month, first designated in 1984, to remind everyone of the importance of promoting awareness about crime prevention and personal safety.

For more information, please call the Pembroke Pines Police Department Community Affairs Unit at 954-436-3274 or email CAU@ppines.com.
