Time to “Play Ball” Baseball Fun at Flamingo Park

Pembroke Pines, FL (June 12, 2025) -- Playball 2025, being held this year on July 11 from 10 am to Noon, is an exciting day of baseball and softball action for boys and girls of all ages. The Recreation and Cultural Arts Department hosts the Mayor’s Play Ball Summer event each year in conjunction with the United States Conference of Mayors (USCM) and Major League Baseball. The event will be held at Flamingo Park, located at 1900 NW 122 Terrace.

Event Details

This free event, which promotes youth baseball and softball, will feature fun activities, music and food.

There will be a Pitch, Hit, Run event with separate age divisions, as well as divisions for Beginners and Advanced players. Boys and girls ages 7 to 14 will be given the option of using baseball or softball equipment.

Now through August of 2025, with the help of mayors across the country, Play Ball Events will be held with the goal of energizing communities and generating support and love for baseball and softball.

For more information, please call 954-392-2116.
