8th Annual Art Lit 2026

January 1st – February 28th

Pembroke Pines, FL (December 22, 2025) -- Broward County Libraries and The City of Pembroke Pines invite all ages to journey through native wetlands and explore traditions surrounding seeds and planting at the 8th Annual Art Lit 2026, a free community festival of art, culture and stories that connect the community. This festival will be held on January 10, 2026 from 10 am to 3 pm at the Southwest Regional Library, located at 16835 Sheridan Street.

Event Details

Art Lit 2026 features performances, hands-on art activities, interactive literature workshops, food trucks, vendors, facepainting and more. From Sawgrass to Seagrass, residents and visitors will participate in beach side, board walk, and trail head book discussions, presentations, programs, workshops and a festival that truly kicks off One Book One Broward.

One Book One Broward

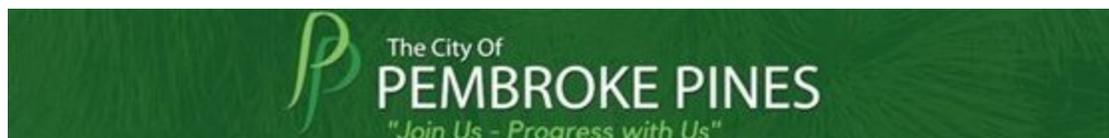

Start the New Year READING with Broward County Libraries annual initiative One Book One Broward (OBOB). Join all who live, learn, work and play in Broward County from January 1 to February 28, 2026 to build deeper connections through a single book community read. This year's theme Our Nature: How Our Physical Environment Can Lead Us to Seek Hope, Courage, and Connection will be guided by the matrilinear storytelling in the novel "The Seed Keeper" by Diane Wilson and the youth companion book "The First Blade of Sweetgrass" by Suzanne Greenlaw and Gabriel Frey. This initiative will provide human connection, cultural heritage preservation, and diverse perspectives that enable deeper understanding of our community while celebrating reading in South-Florida's great outdoors.

More information can be found at ArtLit.Broward.org or by calling Southwest Regional Library at 954-357-6580.
